

Educational Resources Embedded within the Board of Governors

The President of the St. Louis County Historical Society's Board of Governors throughout 2014 was Jill Dupont, Chair of the History and Politics Department at the College of St. Scholastica. Jim Schwarzbauer, former instructor at Hermantown High School and adjunct instructor at UMD and Lake Superior College, was Vice President. The board also includes Dr. Robert Evans, former Philosophy Department Professor at UMD and Tom Buck, Adjunct Professor at the College of St. Scholastica's Department of Computers and Information Systems.

Education through Website and Social Media Activity

The Society continues to maintain two websites and two Facebook pages: main website at www.thehistorypeople.org and Veterans' Memorial Hall at www.vets-hall.org.

As of December 15, 2014 (when these statistics were gathered and tallied for a required detailed report to St. Louis County), the Society's main website had been visited 7,369 times, with 10,753 visitors/users and 98,704 page views. The Society's Facebook page had 588 "likes" and 20,984 total reach.

At the end of the year, the Society's VMH program's website had been visited 13,335 times, by 6,311 visitors/users and 10,378 page views. The VMH Facebook page had 560 "likes" and 17,749 total reach.
