Veterans' Remembrance Dinner and Mike Colalillo Scholarship Presentation

On December 3, the 11th annual VMH Remembrance Dinner was again held in the Great Hall of the Depot. The year's theme selected by the VMH Advisory Committee was "Year of the Servicewoman" and this was carried out in the dinner by selection of Jodi Stauber as the speaker. Her presentation was entitled "Reflections of Service" and was enthusiastically received. The Professional Chefs Association again prepared the meal pro bono and it also was enthusiastically received. Morgan Young, then a senior at St. Scholastica, and now a part-time collections assistant with the Society, won the annual Mike Colalillo Scholarship award of $1000 and was present to receive it.
