

The St. Louis County Historical Society is proud to announce the publication of

INVINCIBLE

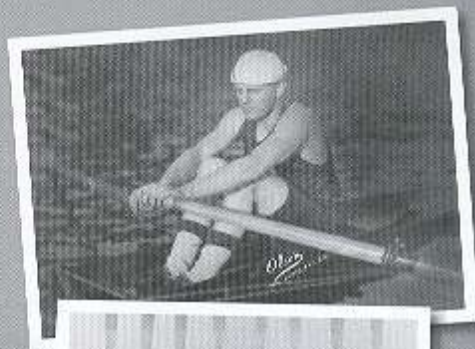

The Duluth Boat Club, founded in 1886, once dominated North American rowing competition. It also provided an almost unimaginable array of water recreation for thousands, and by 1909 the Duluth Boat Club was the greatest water sports organization in the world.

Invincible is a stunning limited-edition volume that chronicles the history of the Duluth Boat Club throughout 128-pages of fascinating text, complemented with approximately 180 historic photographs. Its 8.5" x 11" format showcases many historic moments of the organization including the saga of the "Invincible Four", a crew of four men who were undefeated in twenty-two elite rowing races.

INVINCIBLE is now available to order.
