General Information

The St. Louis County Historical Society offers a variety of traveling exhibits to any interested business or organization.

- All exhibits offer an educational experience related to St. Louis County, Minnesota history. Some stories include Lake County and Cook County.
- Please inquire about new traveling exhibits that may have become available, since the printing of this brochure.
- An advance request (via phone, email, etc.) of at least one month is highly recommended, as exhibits will not be sent out unless they are in good repair and travel-ready. We must have a completed Reservation Request form, proof of insurance, and full payment (if applicable) prior to an exhibit being released to you.
- Exhibits are to be picked up and returned to the St. Louis County Historical Society on the stated dates unless specifically agreed otherwise. We do not provide common carrier transport packing services unless specified, agreed to, and paid for in advance.
- Please provide your own packing materials for safe transportation of exhibits.

Reservation Request: A form is included at the end of this pamphlet.

Father Baraga: Shared Horizons

Father Baraga's Miraculous Landing at Cross River,
1846 (Howard Sivertson, © 1997)

This is a short biography of the Slovenian Catholic missionary Father Frederic Baraga (1797-1868). He resided in the area during the mid-1800s, during the late Lake Superior fur trade era, and immersed himself in the Ojibwe culture. Father Baraga is particularly remembered for his Ojibwe language translation and Ojibwe dictionaries.

Retail items: Fine art prints and note card sets featuring Howard Sivertson's Miraculous Landing at Cross River (shown above) are available for your resale on a consignment basis.
